Four Firemen Burned In Explosion

Four firemen of Des Plaines volunteer fire department, were more or less severely burned Wednesday morning when a gas tank upon an asphalt truck exploded as they were fighting a blaze of asphalt.

The truck was in use in the resurfacing of East River road at Center road, when in attempting to heat up the asphalt pump, the material caught fire. The fire department responded to the alarm and those more severely burned were upon the windward side of the truck when the intense heat caused the explosion.

First aid was given by the Northwestern hospital, to Chief Walter Lagerhausen, Ben Stanger, Wallace Kinder and Henry Wolf. Some of the burns are deep and very painful.

Arlington Adds Tannic Acid Equipment

The Arlington Heights fire department added to its equipment this week a tannic acid outfit for use in cases similar to that which faced the Des Plaines department at the above fire. The prompt application of tannic acid to burns relieves suffering and is one of the most modern discoveries for such purposes.

Firemen Entertain Record Crowd at Dance; County Contributes $500

The picnic last Saturday of the Mt. Prospect village and rural fire department was a record-breaker, 1450 dance tickets were sold and the net receipts are over $800. This is probably the only rural fire department with a crew of active firemen. There are 27 men so designated, representing each of the seven districts. They were present in their new firemen shirts and wore badges.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wille, of Des Plaines received five silver dollars as the eldest couple present, their ages being 83 and 79 years respectively.

Receive $500 From County

Commissioner Wm. Buses and Rex M. Supt. of the Forest Preserve also attended the picnic and presented the League with a $500 check for the protection of the Forest Preserve in case of fire.

Arlington Boy And Mt. Prospect Girl Quietly Married

Charles Resner of Arlington Heights and Lois Baskin of Mt. Prospect surprised friends and relatives by slipping away very quietly and getting married, at Crown Point, Indiana, Saturday evening. The young couple are staying in Chicago at the present time.

Elk Grove Woman Dies In Same House She Was Born Eighty Years Ago

Mrs. W. Luth, 80, will be buried Thursday from the only home she has ever known, at the corner of Arlington Heights and Algonquin roads. As the daughter of Lucius Skinner and his wife Juliette A. Miner, she was born upon July 29, 1857 in the Skinner homestead one of the earliest residences built in Elk Grove.

Deceased was united in marriage to William Luth April 30, 1881. There remain two children, Ray Luth and a daughter, Mrs. Edith Keppen and two grandchildren. All her brothers and sisters predeceased her in death. She was in excellent health until two weeks ago. Old age is given as the cause of her demise, which occurred Tuesday morning, July 27. Interment will be in the Elk Grove cemetery where so many of the early pioneers rest.

Thanks Public For Patronage

Having sold our fruit store, we take this means of extending our thanks and appreciation to our customers and the people of Arlington Heights who accorded us their patronage during the past eight years.

We cheerfully recommend our successor to the public. Mr. Angeloff has had the experience and is in a position to give to Arlington Hts a fruit and vegetable store second to none. Scolars

Local Tennis Courts To Be Closed Sunday Afternoon, Two to Five

Due to a tennis tournament between Arlington Heights and Des Plaines, the Arlington Heights tennis courts will be closed Sunday afternoon between two and five o'clock.

"THE MARX BROTHERS" SPEND A DAY AT THE RACES

The "Three Marx Bros." went to the races Wednesday. Their names happen to be "Schneberger" but that made no difference as they got as big a kick out of the ponies as any three Hollywood stars. Gotlieb was host to his two brothers from Chicago but whether the host part included payment of all losses at the mutual windows, we do not know.

New Eastside Pump Is Being Tested

The newly installed pump is in operation at the Arlington Heights eastside well and is throwing an excellent stream of water. However, water tests will be taken and approved by the state health department before any of the water will be turned into the mains.

Now that the troubles are over, the water department admits that they have been having some trouble the past two weeks, due to a break-down of the deep well pump which threatened the water supply for a short time.

Lake Water Inevitable

Robert Kingery, general manager of the Chicago Regional planning commission in speaking at LaGrange last week, predicted that Lake Michigan water would be the inevitable solution of the water problems of all suburban communities of the Chicago area and that the communities themselves should prepare for that time.

Arlington Heights thinks that it has put off that evil day by 20 years by the recently installed deep well, but it must be admitted that if the water level continues to drop Arlington Heights may be in trouble before the end of 20 years.

Suburban Safety Council Organized

A new organization known as the Suburban Safety Council has recently been formed. Twenty-four municipalities, State Police, and the Illinois Division of Highways are represented.

Mr. Arthur L. McElhose, village clerk, has been appointed to represent Arlington Heights on the Council. Mr. McElhose is also on the Education Sub-Committee of the Council.

C&N.W. Refunds $1,750,000 Payroll Taxes

Announcement is made by the Chicago & North-Western Railway that it has completed the refunding of payroll taxes to its employees, which began soon after the new federal pension act went into effect. About $1,750,000 was refunded. A total of 80,000 checks, covering refunds for both 1936 and 1937 have been sent out. The checks varied in amounts from $117.37 to one of 2 cents. It is believed that "North Western" is the first of the large railways to complete its payroll tax refunding.

Arlington Business Streets Have New Waste Paper Containers

The business district of Arlington Heights has taken on a new classified appearance with the installation of six waste paper boxes. Their use by the general public will be studied by the street department before any further boxes are ordered. They have the swinging type cover and are easily emptied.

Of course the average citizen will desire to help keep the city clean and here are the locations: Heidorn Sweet Shop, Sieburg Drug Store, Collignon Delicatessen, Rodewald News Agency, Arlington Cafe and the Theatre.

A survey of the area surrounding the boxes made Wednesday afternoon showed that only one business man was availing himself of the opportunity to have a clean front yard. Rodewald Bros. not only keep the sidewalk clean, but keep the paper of the surrounding pavement. The box will be moved to other points if they are not used by the public.

Village Board Awaits Recovery of Ald. Schaefer Before Drawing Lots

The present aldermen of Arlington Heights do not know whether they are serving two or four years terms. Due to the illness of Alderman Schaefer, the lots to determine the length of service, has not yet been drawn. Mr. Schaefer is still confined to his bed, but otherwise is doing very well.

Jack Moodie Wins High Award At Scout Camp

Jack Moodie did not catch a big fish, but he did catch the highest honor awarded at Camp Oh-Da-Kota, that of being chosen the Honor Camper, for one week of camp.

Each week one boy is chosen as honor camper and the winners of each week, over the entire camp period will have the pleasure of a ten day trip to the north woods with scout officials. There will be seven boys in all and the trip will be made the middle of August. Jack is to be congratulated on this award for it proves his good all around camp sportsmanship.

Advance Sales Large For Booster "August Jamboree" Dance

Advance sale of tickets for the "August Jamboree," a dance sponsored by the Arlington Ballroom Boosters to be held Saturday, August 7, at the Arlington Ballroom, Higgins road and Arlington Heights road, show that a large crowd is expecting to attend.

Elmer Borchardt and his orchestra are furnishing the music. A special price is offered to those who purchase tickets before the dance.

Farmers Get 25c Increase For Milk

Beginning August 1, 1937, Pure Milk Association members will receive seventy-five cents per hundred pounds for their base milk as a premium over average monthly condensed milk prices, f. o. b. country plants, receiving stations, and loading platforms.

This will be 25c per 100 lbs. increase in the premium now paid for quality milk—which is now 50c per 100 lbs. over average monthly condensed price for 100% of base.

The price received by the Pure Milk Association members so far during July, 1937, is $1,917 per 100 lbs. of base milk.

However, the agreement between Pure Milk Association members and distributors calls for a peg in the condensary price as follows: Low—$1.40 per 100 lbs.; high—$1.60 per 100 lbs., which means that during the life of this new price agreement beginning August first, 1937, Pure Milk Association members will receive: Not less than $2.15 per 100 lbs., and not more than $2.35 per 100 lbs. for their base milk at country plants, loading platforms, or cooling stations. All other terms of their contract with distributors remain unchanged.

Present high prices of feeds and the increase in the price of farm labor, not to mention other items of expense because of compliance with the Grade A health law, all of which added to the cost of production of quality milk by Pure Milk Association members, are responsible for this increase.

Tom Jarnes Has a Big Moment At Scout Camp

Tom Jarvis enjoyed every minute of his stay at Camp Oh-Da-Kota, but the outstanding event of his visit was when he pulled a 25½ inch pickerel out of the water. According to his pals Tom didn't stretch the story a bit and they all got a big thrill out of it.

Collignon's Leave For Washington

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Collignon, accompanied by their sons Vernon and Albert left early Sunday morning for the State of Washington to be gone three weeks. Albert who returned from a CCC camp in that state last April is returning to make his home there and will be employed upon a ranch.

Palatine and Roselle Fire Departments Save House When Barn Burns

Fire of unknown origin Thursday night destroyed a large barn and outbuildings on the Ed. Sunderlage farm at the intersection of route 38 and the Higgins road, 5 miles east of Elgin.

While members of the Ed. and Erwin Sunderlage families were seated in the kitchen about 9, little 4-year-old Betty Sunderlage sounded the alarm, having discovered flames emitting through the horse barn doors.

Roselle and Palatine fire departments were summoned, and saved the house and several outbuildings from the flames. Friday the big barn was reduced to a smoldering ruin, while a chicken coop, a tool shed and the milk house were completely destroyed. One horse was consumed in the blaze and another was badly burned. Two work animals were liberated from the barn.

Crop losses included 15 tons of hay and oats stored in the barn, and a wagon, a drill and other pieces of equipment were consumed. The Sunderlage dairy herd was at pasture and not threatened. Erwin Sunderlage is operator of the farm.

It Is Near Stoker Time Says Chas. Hardtke

It may be warm weather now, but the wise householder is thinking a little bit these days about the months to come when he will either be doing his own stoking of the furnace, or will have a Stokol stoker working for him. Mr. Hardtke of the Stoker and Air Conditioning Co. is prepared to give full information to any householder who is interested in saving money and securing more efficient heating of his home.

Annual Inspection Tour And Picnic Of Truck Gardeners

The annual Inspection Tour and Picnic, of the Cook County Truck Gardeners & Farmers Association, will be held Saturday, July 31, 1937. Membership meet at the experiment station grounds on Howard avenue, 1½ miles west of Mannheim road, and about 1 mile southwest of Des Plaines, where an inspection of the grounds will be made, starting at one o'clock.

After the inspection they will go to Mueller's Grove, 6209 Lincoln avenue, Morton Grove, where the picnic festivities will be held. Games, dancing, and refreshments of all kinds. Valuable and appropriate prizes awarded. Music for dancing throughout the evening, will be furnished by Walter Heine's orchestra. Admission is free. Bring your lunch and spend an enjoyable evening under the trees.

Another Motorist Writes Own Death Ticket; Was in Hurry

Walter Rowley, 151 South 22nd avenue, Bellwood was traveling so fast on Elmhurst road Saturday afternoon that he failed to stop at the intersection of Algonquin road and crashed into a LaSalle car being driven west upon the latter road by Chester A. Baker, of Maywood. Rowley died the next day at the Northwestern hospital from internal injuries and skull fracture.

Chas. Hebert, Chicago, who accompanied Rowley, is still a very ill man. The occupants of the other car escaped with minor injuries.

The impact was so great that the cars were completely wrecked and an electric light pole was cut off. Ambulances of Lauterburg & Oehler took the injured to the hospital in Des Plaines.

Flush of Water Mains Still Needed

Geo. Palmer, chairman of the Arlington Heights Legion carnival committee, reports that the carnival of last week was a big success. In behalf of the post he extends thanks and appreciation for all those who cooperated. Geo. Voss of Palatine, went home Saturday evening with the new Studebaker. Mrs. Steve Szasz, the Norge refrigerator and Frank J. Meyer, the Philco radio.

Esther Daggett was elected carnival queen and she has asked the those who voted for her. The other queen winners were Evelyn Cavanaugh, Marguerite Pope and Janet Fischer.

Arlington's "Best" Meet Des Plaines In Tennis Matches

Four Arlington Heights young men who have frequented the local tennis courts and have been generally judged the best tennis players in Arlington Heights are matched against Des Plaines four-some this Sunday.

Bud Vanderbeek, Wally Meyer, and C. F. Close and another whose selection is not yet certain, will play four singles and two doubles matches. The tennis courts will be reserved from the hours of two to five Sunday afternoon.

Passengers Stop Greyhound Bus To Have Father Arrested

Passengers upon a Greyhound bus passing through Des Plaines Tuesday evening, stopped the bus and called the Des Plaines police to take in charge a drunken father, who was mistreating his eight year old daughter.

There is talk of a dinner in September, continued Mr. Griffith and a big home coming celebration for some time that month.

The officers of the association serve without pay and no full time secretary is employed as is the case in Des Plaines, but the enthusiasm of individual members is certain to make the business association a real force in this community the coming fall and winter.

Health Commissioner A. Becker Puts O. K. Upon Public Kitchens

August Becker, Arlington Heights health commissioner inspected this week, the kitchens of all the local restaurants and taverns serving lunches and gave them his official O. K. as to cleanliness. In one or two cases he made a few suggestions, which were well received by the proprietors.

Leading service stations and garages in practically every community in this territory are now handling Sterling oil, a nationally known Penn oil. Motorists can now buy it from their local dealer. E. W. Kruse Inc., Chicago, is the distributor and R. J. Olson is local representative for this territory.

The first ornamental shade trees set out in Arlington Heights along East Euclid avenue under the governmental relief program are no more. They were consumed by fire this week.

The village had cut the weeds and grass and somebody burned them off—the trees with it. The highway department is making an effort to learn upon whom the blame should be placed.

Fire Takes First WPA Trees On Euclid Ave.

The first ornamental shade trees set out in Arlington Heights along East Euclid avenue under the governmental relief program are no more. They were consumed by fire this week.

The village had cut the weeds and grass and somebody burned them off—the trees with it. The highway department is making an effort to learn upon whom the blame should be placed.

Business Men's Association Is On Vacation But Big Program Ahead

This is vacation month for the Arlington Heights Business Men's association as the July meeting was voted cancelled, but its members still rest up because President Griffith has a rather large program for the coming months.

By the August meeting on the 26th, the executive board will have a lot of recommendations to present to the membership. "The association was only organized," states Mr. Griffith, "late in the spring and has hardly had time to get the organization completed and the real program is before us."

There is talk of a dinner in September, continued Mr. Griffith and big home coming celebration for some time that month.

The officers of the association serve without pay and no full time secretary is employed as is the case in Des Plaines, but the enthusiasm of individual members is certain to make the business association a real force in this community the coming fall and winter.

Walter Rowley, 151 South 22nd avenue, Bellwood was traveling so fast upon "Main Street," soliciting the retail food trade of Arlington Heights people. He has leased the quarters of the former Scolaro fruit store which have been undergoing complete redecorating. It presents an attractive appearance in green and ivory and if the garden and fruit products that John sells are equal to the appearance of his store, it is going to be a real establishment.

Mr. Angeloff has had many years merchandising experience and while his line is now fruits and vegetables, the customary Angeloff service with quality goods at a reasonable price means that he is going to succeed.

Flush of Water Mains Still Needed

Passengers Stop Greyhound Bus To Have Father Arrested

Passengers upon a Greyhound bus passing through Des Plaines Tuesday evening, stopped the bus and called the Des Plaines police to take in charge a drunken father, who was mistreating his eight year old daughter.

The parents of the little girl, who gave the appearance of being undernourished, are divorced and the girl had been spending a vacation with her father, who was returning to Chicago. She had only had a sandwich to eat all day long. She told a passenger that she was afraid of the manner in which her father was acting.

The man was arraigned before Judge Sengstock and sent to the sex offense bureau.

New Astaire-Rogers In Musical Entertainment Smash

Blending romance, melody, dancing and laughter, "Shall We Dance," the new Fred Astaire-Ginger Rogers musical film is said to hit a new high in screen entertainment at the Arlington Theatre Sunday and Monday, August 1-2.

Made on a scale that surpasses all the noted duo's previous vehicles and offering brilliant novelties in its dances, songs and settings, "Shall We Dance" is hailed as the finest and most entertaining picture of the two stars' careers.

The story deals with the hectic love affair between Astaire as an outstanding ballet dancer, and Miss Rogers as a noted revue favorite. Astaire's interest in the slender tap-dancer leads to a series of incidents which in turn give rise to popular belief that the two are married.

Despite Miss Rogers' denials, the rumors grow and, unable to escape the resulting publicity, the two decide that the only way to obtain their freedom is actually to get married. This ingenious plot is played against a glittering background of modern life, with spectacular dances and tuneful songs numbers woven into the action, and with even more romance and comedy than any of the previous Astaire-Rogers vehicles.

The two stars present three dances together, one of them a highly unique roller-skating number. Others include a solo dance by Astaire in time to the whirling

Sassafras in Medicine

The root of sassafras very early in American history became an important article of medicine. It is sometimes called the "ague tree" as a decoction of its bark was supposed to cure that disease. Sassafras tea, an infusion of the young shoots and roots, has long been a favorite remedy for colds and a tonic, being sudorific and a stimulant.

Don't forget to attend the Second Annual Combined organizations basket picnic on Sunday, Aug. 8, at the Old Folks Farm, given by the organizations of St. Peter's Lutheran church of Arlington Heights. During the past week the committee has lined up a good program, the first event to begin at 2 p.m., and the rest following in quick succession until sundown. There will be races for the little ones, volleyball games, tug of wars, and then the All-Star baseball game. We probably won't have Dizzy Dean playing, but if the brand of ball doesn't drive you dizzy, well then, we just don't know.

Since this is to be a basket picnic, everyone is requested to bring his lunch, in fact, we even warn you not to forget, because no lunch will be served, and it will probably be a long time before you go home. Refreshments will be served, however, especially if it's hot. Be sure to be there. A good time is assured everyone.

MT. PROSPECT

Mr. Lawrence Lee just came back from his vacation in Iowa, in a town 5 miles from Des Moines. Evidently his vacation agreed with him for he has very rosy cheeks now and seems to have gained weight.

Miss Elvira Meyn's cheery face is missed in the post office. She is on her vacation in Indiana. However there is one compensation and that is that Mrs. Milton Sporleder is there to take her place.

From all reports Mrs. W. Weiss and daughter are having a fine time in Virginia. Bet they come back with a southern drawl.

Mrs. Luckner entertained the Pinochle club Tuesday evening. Yea, rah for the Pinochle club! Even though most of the other clubs in town sort of fade out during the summer, the Pinochle club goes gaily onward.

The John Katz family on Main street, have relatives visiting them from Alabama.

A picnic was given Sunday by the V. F. W. and its auxiliary. Everyone having a good time.

Mrs. August Froehling, grandmother of Albert and Margaret Froehling, fell and broke her hip last Saturday.

Mr. William Busse Sr., Mr. Geo. Busse and wives, have gone on their vacation together to Yellow-stone Park.

Miss Mildred Haas took a trip to the east. She planned on going on a tour of the east coast, Niagara Falls, through New York and around to see the different spots of interest there.

The Fireman's picnic and dance at Arlington Ballroom and grove last Saturday night was a huge success. In fact, so big a success that you could barely move.

The Lions Club will hold their Annual Picnic Sunday, August 1, at the Elm Grove Forest Preserve—the same place as last year. A big day is anticipated for the Lions.

Albert Busse, Fred Meeske, "Al" Haake and "Art" Mueller have just returned from a fishing trip at Young's Camp, Emo, Canada. From all reports they had a real fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Cleven have returned from a vacation in the north woods at the Five Lakes Club, Spooner Wis. Fishing was very good and Mr. Cleven reports he caught a black bass weighing 4½ lbs.

Herbert Busse is back at school. He is taking a course in floral designing with the Boston school of floral art, Chicago.

Vesper Services Again Sunday

Rev. Donald C. Beatty, assistant chaplain at the Elgin State hospital, will be the speaker at the second of the vesper services presented by the Community church next Sunday evening at 8:00 o'clock. If the weather permits the program will be held near the bandstand in the village park, but in case of inclement weather the service will be moved to the church.

Having studied psychiatry at Harvard Medical school and in Baltimore, together with service on the staffs of the Massachusetts State Hospital at Worcester, the Pittsburgh City hospital and Home, and the Elgin State hospital during the last ten years following his graduation from the Boston University School of Theology, Mr. Beatty is richly equipped to discuss the subject, "Religion and Mental Health."

He will bring with him movies portraying the work done at the Elgin State Hospital with various mental diseases. Music will be provided by a group of musicians from the hospital orchestra and by soloists from the staff of the institution.

Mt. Prospect is able to get this unusual program through the association of the Rev. Mr. Beatty and Rev. Samuel G. Beers as class mates at Boston.

Stormy weather and a drop in the temperature caused the vesper services planned for last Sunday night in the village park to be shifted to the church, where an audience that filled most of the seats in the church heard Prof. Ralph C. Browns talk on "What Are We Trying To Do?" Prof. Browns defined the work of the church as the saving of life through the presentation in all its activities of the spirit and example of Jesus Christ. Religious education, social activities, worship services—all the work of the church should bring people to a clearer knowledge of Jesus and the fuller life available through Him. Newer methods are needed, but the objective remains the same as in the days of John who wrote, "In him was life, and the life was the light of men."

South Church Pastor Arrives This Week

Rev. Edwin Ira Stevens, the new pastor of South Church, will arrive on Thursday with Mrs. Stevens to assume his new charge.

Mr. Stevens comes from a three-year pastorate at Spencerport, N. Y. and brings to South Church a fine record of achievement both as a speaker and a pastor as well as a wealth of experience in young people's work.

Mrs. Stevens has been very active in New York State young people's work and has pursued a course of study at Rochester-Colgate Theological Seminary from which her husband received his B. D. last June.

A residence has been made ready for their occupancy at 506 S. Wella Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will be the guests of honor next Sunday evening at six at a garden party in the beautiful garden of Mr. and Mrs. W. Paul Ward at 506 N. Main street.

GASOLINE AND POP DON'T MIX —WITH PETE

If the petty thief who visited the service station of the Mt. Prospect Oil Co., Tuesday evening, got away, it wasn't "Pete" Walsh's fault.

A young red-headed lad in a Michigan car pulled into the service station operated by the Mt. Prospect Oil Co. and ordered the tank filled up. After putting 14 gallons of gas in the car, "Pete" was requested to bring a bottle of pop. As he turned away to get the pop, Pete (whose "Woman's Intuition" must have been functioning about 100%) turned and saw the car pull away from the station at break-neck speed.

Fortunately young Walsh caught the number of the car and reported it to the police. While the sneak-thief, had not been apprehended as this paper went to press, it is our guess he didn't get far on his "free" gas.

The Lions Club will hold their Annual Picnic Sunday, August 1, at the Elm Grove Forest Preserve—the same place as last year. A big day is anticipated for the Lions.

Albert Busse, Fred Meeske, "Al" Haake and "Art" Mueller have just returned from a fishing trip at Young's Camp, Emo, Canada. From all reports they had a real fishing trip.

Vesper Services Again Sunday

Keeping abreast of the times Doctor Wolfarth is equipping his hospital, the Mt. Prospect General Hospital, with air conditioning throughout.

To give the patients the utmost in comfort, the hospital is installing a General Electric air-conditioning system. Work is starting on this improvement right away and the equipment is being installed by the Mt. Prospect Electrical Construction Co.

ALBERT CATCHES OSCAR'S GRANDPA

You can talk about your Oscars and Fannies, etc., but it takes a local boy to snag a fish that is really worth talking about.

Reading up on Oscar's pedigree, four of our local lads decided he was of Canadian origin and departed for Canadian shores to look up (or hook up) his family tree. They went way up to Emo, Canada, in their search and sure enough they were right and were properly rewarded.

Albert Busse, the now famous angler, who gained his fame when Oscar's young son, Thorvald broke Albert's pole at Sylvan Lake last year, got his hook caught in Oscar's Grandpa, Ingaborg, and landed him. Three-quarters of the local population have been dining on this catch for the past several days.

Fritz Meeske, pretty near broke into print on this trip also. According to his story he had his gaffhook in Oscar's Great Grandfather, Cedfrey from Norseland—BUT HE GOT AWAY.

MT. PROSPECT

Mr. Lawrence Lee just came back from his vacation in Iowa, in a town 5 miles from Des Moines. Evidently his vacation agreed with him for he has very rosy cheeks now and seems to have gained weight.

Miss Elvira Meyn's cheery face is missed in the post office. She is on her vacation in Indiana. However there is one compensation and that is that Mrs. Milton Sporleder is there to take her place.

From all reports Mrs. W. Weiss and daughter are having a fine time in Virginia. Bet they come back with a southern drawl.

Mrs. Luckner entertained the Pinochle club Tuesday evening. Yea, rah for the Pinochle club! Even though most of the other clubs in town sort of fade out during the summer, the Pinochle club goes gaily onward.

The John Katz family on Main street, have relatives visiting them from Alabama.

A picnic was given Sunday by the V. F. W. and its auxiliary. Everyone having a good time.

Mrs. August Froehling, grandmother of Albert and Margaret Froehling, fell and broke her hip last Saturday.

Mr. William Busse Sr., Mr. Geo. Busse and wives, have gone on their vacation together to Yellow-stone Park.

Miss Mildred Haas took a trip to the east. She planned on going on a tour of the east coast, Niagara Falls, through New York and around to see the different spots of interest there.

The Fireman's picnic and dance at Arlington Ballroom and grove last Saturday night was a huge success. In fact, so big, so many more.

The Lions Club will hold their Annual Picnic Sunday, August 1, at the Elk Grove Forest Preserve—the same place as last year. A big day is anticipated for the Lions, Albert Busse, Fred Meeke, "Al" Haake and "Art" Mueller have just returned from a fishing trip at Young's Camp, Eno, Canada. From all reports they had a real fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Cleven have returned from vacation in the north woods at the Five Lakes Club, Spooner, Wis. Fishing was very good and Mr. Cleven reports he caught a black bass weighing 4 1/2 lbs.

Herbert Busse is back at school. He is taking a course in floral designing with the Boston school of floral art, Chicago.

Vesper Services Again Sunday

Rev. Donald C. Beatty, assistant chaplain at the Elgin State hospital, will be the speaker at the second of the vesper services presented by the Community church next Sunday evening at 8:00 o'clock. If the weather permits the program will be held near the bandstand in the village park, but in case of inclement weather the service will be moved to the church.

Having studied psychiatry at Harvard Medical school and in Baltimore, together with service on the staffs of the Massachusetts State Hospital at Worcester, the Pittsburgh City hospital and Home, and the Elgin State hospital during the last ten years following his graduation from the Boston University School of Theology, Mr. Beatty is richly equipped to discuss the subject, "Religion and Mental Health."

He will bring with him movies portraying the work done at the Elgin State Hospital with various mental diseases. Music will be provided by a group of musicians from the hospital orchestra and by soloists from the staff of the institution.

Mr. Prospect is able to get this unusual program through the association of the Rev. Mr. Beatty and Rev. Samuel G. Beers as classmates at Boston.

Stormy weather and a drop in the temperature caused the vesper services planned for last Sunday night in the village park to be shifted to the church, where an audience that filled most of the seats in the church heard Prof. Ralph C. Browns of Illinois Wesleyan University talk on "What Are We Trying To Do?" Prof. Browns defined the work of the church as the saving of life through the presentation in all its activities of the spirit and example of Jesus Christ. Religious education, social activities, worship services—all the work of the church should bring people to a clearer knowledge of Jesus and the fuller life available through Him. Newer methods are needed, but the objective remains the same as in the days of John who wrote, "In him was life, and the life was the light of men."

South Church Pastor Arrives This Week

Rev. Edwin Ira Stevens, the new pastor of South Church, will arrive on Thursday with Mrs. Stevens to assume his new charge.

Mr. Stevens comes from a three-year pastorate at Spencerport, N. Y. and brings to South Church a fine record of achievement both as a speaker and a pastor as well as years of experience in young people's work.

Mrs. Stevens has been very active in New York State young people's work and has pursued a course of study at Rochester-Colgate Theological Seminary from which her husband received his B. D. last June.

A residence has been made ready for their occupancy at 506 S. Waukegan avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will be the guests of honor next Sunday evening at six at a garden party in the beautiful garden of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ward at 506 N. May street.

GASOLINE AND POP DON'T MIX —WITH PETE

If the petty thief who visited the service station of the Mt. Prospect Oil Co., Tuesday evening, got away, it wasn't "Pete" Walsh's fault.

A young red-headed lad in a Michigan car pulled into the service station operated by the Mt. Prospect Oil Co. and ordered the tank filled up. After putting 14 gallons of gas in the car, "Pete" was requested to bring a bottle of pop. As he turned away to get the pop, Pete (whose "Woman's Intuition" must have been functioning about 100%) turned and saw the car pull away from the station at break-neck speed.

Fortunately young Walsh caught the number of the car and reported it to the police. While the sneak-thief had not been apprehended as this paper went to press, it is our guess, he didn't get far on his "free" gas.

Keeping abreast of the times

Doctor Wolfarth is equipping his hospital, The Mt. Prospect General Hospital, with air conditioning throughout.

To give the patients the utmost in comfort, the hospital is installing a General Electric air-conditioning system. Work is starting on this improvement right away and the equipment is being installed by the Mt. Prospect Electrical Construction Co.

ALBERT CATCHES OSCAR'S GRANDPA

You can talk about your Oscars and Fannies, etc., but it takes a local boy to snag a fish that is really worth talking about.

Reading up on Oscar's pedigree, four of our local lads decided he was of Canadian origin and departed for Canadian shores to look up (or hook up) his family tree. They went way up to Eno, Canada, in their search and sure enough they were right and were properly rewarded.

Albert Busse, the now famous angler, who gained his fame when Oscar's young son, Thorvald broke Albert's pole at Sylvan Lake last year, got his hook caught in Oscar's Grandpa, Ingaborg, and landed him. Three-quarters of the local population have been dining on this catch for the past several days.

Fritz Meeske pretty near broke into print on this trip also. According to his story he had his gaff hooked in Oscar's Great Grandfather, Codfryer from Norseland—BUT HE GOT AWAY.

EAST MAINE

Catlow Theatre
Has Good Program
Of Current Shows

The Ben Babcock family were shocked to receive word of the death of Ben's father at Palatine, Illinois, on July 25. Although the elder Mr. Babcock had been ailing with a weak heart for some time, the end came rather sudden. Funeral services were held Wednesday of this week.

David George, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ahrens was taken to the St. Francis hospital in Evanston last week for treatment of the complications from which he has been suffering. Latest reports say the little fellow has been showing a slight improvement.

Since plans and arrangements for the annual picnic sponsored by the Truck Gardeners' Association have previously been announced this is just a final reminder to one and all not to forget the date and time, Saturday, July 31. The visit to the experiment station will take place right after lunch and after a thorough going over of the grounds has been completed the trek to the picnic ground at Mueller's Grove in Morton Grove will be made.

Dancing and all sorts of amusements will be on the program for the afternoon and evening and those who desire are invited to bring their picnic suppers with them.

St. Matthews congregation entertained a fine large crowd at their picnic last Sunday despite the occasional showers, which eventually drove the crowd indoors where the games were continued after supper.

Winners of the two big prizes of the day were both in one lucky family, Evelyn Elsner winning the Mixmaster and her brother, Edwin, winning the radio. The committee on arrangements express their hearty appreciation to all who attended, not only from the home congregation but surrounding communities as well, for helping to make the affair successful.

The East Maine baseball club have posters out telling of a dance they are giving at Mueller's hall, Morton Grove, on Saturday, August 1. Music will be provided by Mel Borchardt.

WEST NORTHFIELD

St. John Ev. Lutheran Church
Milwaukee Ave. near Des Plaines River

W. G. Fechner, Pastor

Holy Communion will be administered in the divine service on Sunday which will be conducted in the English language. The confessional service will begin at 9:30 a. m., the regular service at 10:00 a. m. There will be no services at the church on the second Sunday in August.

ST. JOHN'S EV. LUTHERAN CHURCH

L. A. Grotheer, Pastor

On Sunday, August 1, 10 a. m. the pastor will preach on the theme "How should we Christians react over against the animosity of the children of the world." Let us remember that this is an English service.

On Sunday, August 15, we will again observe our mission Sunday. Particulars later.

HIGGINS-CANFIELD

Misses Ada Zimmer, Mildred Zimmer, Rose Sachtleben and Carla Sell, attended the 45th Walther League convention in Detroit, Michigan during the week of July 18-22. They went on a boat trip on the Detroit river to Canada and also went to Ford's Greenfield Village. They came home and reported that they had a wonderful time, and hope that they may be able to go to Pittsburgh for the 46th convention.

COMMUNITY CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

The annual Sunday school picnic will be held in Lyons Park on Thursday, August 5, from 3:00-8:00 p. m.

Further details will be announced at the church services on Sunday and in next week's paper.

The home is being built by the Comfort firm for Theodore Lams and the work is progressing in a fine manner.

The roof is now being completed. The facing brick is on the ground and many people are admiring the type of workmanship and the quality of material which is going into the building.

The Comfort firm has received many inquiries as a result of the fine building they are erecting and will no doubt be called upon to construct more of their high type buildings.

Prospects For Increased Farm Income Are Encouraging

Prospects for farm income this year, exceeding anything in his previous experience in the automobile business here, were voiced today by Allen Wright, Midwest regional manager for the Pontiac Motor Division of General Motors, following an inspection tour of his territory.

With headquarters in Chicago, Mr. Wright exercises sales supervision for Pontiac over Zones centering at Chicago, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Des Moines, St. Louis and Kansas City.

Improving prices, plus prospects for near-record yields from the area were particularly impressive to the Pontiac executive, who pointed out that all business in the area dependent upon farm income show proportionate promise for the next few months.

Upon completion of his regional tour, Mr. Wright declared: "One need not be a trained observer to see everywhere the promise of an unusually good year for the farmer. Lawns, golf courses and pastures are greener and lusher than I have ever seen them so late in the season, thanks to continued rains during late spring and early summer in most of this territory. All this means an abundance of pasture, with a consequent saving in other feeds for the livestock grower.

"While crop prospects are continuing to improve, prices have been on a sustained upward trend, so that the Middle West farmer faces the pleasant prospect of getting a higher price per unit for more crop units. All this is most encouraging for the business man who derives his income from the trading the farmer is in a financial position to do.

Biggest Circus Features "India"

Mighty Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Present Hosts of New Internationally Famed Features, Following Enactment of Most Opulent and Artistic Opening Spectacle in History

The Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey combined circus, known the world over as The Greatest Show on Earth, making its 1937 tour with a seven-ring-and-stage program of which it is unusually proud and featuring a new and dazzling introductory spectacle, India, will positively exhibit in Chicago nine days beginning Saturday, July 31.

With 2000 people and animals participating in its brilliant pageantry, India fills the world's largest big top with moving color, dazzling gems, costly habiliments, gorgeous robes and headresses, rare fabrics, ornate floats, dazzling banners in a panorama of ineffable beauty. It surpasses all previous spectacles in every respect—in cost, in color, in splendor and in immensity.

This year the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey agents have been amazingly successful in contracting outstanding foreign attractions and features. The circus great of the entire world are with The Greatest Show on Earth. The famous William Heyer of Holland and his wonderful horses; the celebrated Magyars, Europe's largest and most thrilling somersaulting troupe; the great Aloys, sensational aerial upside down glider and flier; the Lu-Lotis family of aerial thrillers; the Maysy-Brach troupe of lofty unicycle acrobats; the Qualtieros, airplane sensationalists; the Cleveres, acrobatic whirlwinds—these are but a few of the top flight new acts from abroad. The Naittours, with Nio, only girl somersaults on the tight wire; the Yacopis, The Uyenos, the Maschinos, the Yom Kams, the Cannestrellis, the Walkmirs, the Antaleks, and the Torrence-Dolores are European stellar groups, as are the Wallendas, the Loyal-Repenskis, the Rieffenachs, the Walters, Mile Gillette and the great Rudy Rudyhoff.

The Concellos, the Comets, the Randalls, the Rooneys, the Belmonts, the Melbourne, the Fioretas and the Palmers head the great aerial displays. There are 800 performers in the five rings, on the two stages, in the air and on the quarter mile hippodrome track as the 1937 program unfolds.

The mighty combined circus will arrive on four long trains of 100 double length, steel railroad cars, carrying 1600 people, 50 elephants, 1009 menagerie animals and 700 horses.

Our Health Column

H. O. Meisenheimer, M. D.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

H. O. Meisenheimer, M. D. Infantile Paralysis or Poliomyelitis is an acute, infectious, communicable disease, affecting chiefly children and occurring from July to October. 85% of all cases occur during the first four years of age; the greatest incidence during the second year, the next greatest from the third to the seventh years. A large majority of adults and most children over ten years of age are immune to this disease, probably because they had the disease in a very mild form which left no paralysis.

The virus or germ, responsible for this disease is found mainly in the nasal secretions, which may travel upward into the brain tissue and finally affect the spinal cord tissue and cause paralysis. This virus is found not infrequently, in the nasal secretions of healthy individuals, and undoubtedly they are a very potent source of infection.

A great deal of research work has been done on this dreadful disease and much has been learned, but progress is necessarily slow because the virus is too small to be seen even with the most powerful microscope. Its actions in the body are different than that of other disease producing germs, and so far we have not learned how to handle the poliomyelitis virus in a satisfactory manner.

The onset of poliomyelitis is very difficult or impossible to determine because it starts out in the same manner as any severe head cold might, with a moderate fever, sore throat, running nose, some degree of upset stomach, headache, muscle pains and some drowsiness. The fever may last a few days and disappear. Usually in from one to three days the paralysis appears. The paralysis may affect only one or two muscles of an extremity, an entire extremity or in very severe cases almost all of the muscles of the body. This paralysis will usually last for from four to six weeks and gradually improve so that after from six months to two years, only a fraction of the paralysis remains.

With proper treatment of a condition of this type an individual can finally become a useful citizen even though he is handicapped to some extent. If the disease is recognized in the early stages, a serum may be given that has in many cases prevented the paralysis from developing. This serum is collected from persons having had Poliomyelitis, who are naturally immune to this disease.

Last winter the Public Health Service advised using a special preparation as a nasal spray in all susceptible children during the summer months. This solution is supposed to kill the virus of Poliomyelitis, and to toughen the nasal membrane to better resist invasion.

Encouraging reports from over the country have been received regarding the use of this preventative measure, but much is to be desired from its use and additional improvements will have to be made before it becomes used in a general manner.

May Extend Interceptor To Wheeling

Workmen for the Sanitary District have been busy this week drilling test holes in the terrain of Des Plaines and along River road to Wheeling, in an effort to learn the soil composition preparatory to an extension of sewer work.

We understand plans are developing in the Sanitary board to extend the interceptor, that has been laid in Des Plaines, on to Wheeling to care for sewage of Mt. Prospect, Arlington Heights and Wheeling.

The interceptor has been completed from Thacker street to Touhy avenue for more than a year, and the greater part of the work has been finished to North avenue. However, difficulties were encountered on some stations, which has delayed completion of the whole project.

Should the interceptor be laid on to Wheeling along River road, it will further aid in clearing up the mess in the river. Libertyville and other towns north of us, understand, have either built treatment plants or have them under construction.

This greatly needed improvement, when, and if, it is actually placed in operation, will go a long way in bringing the Des Plaines river back to its original state, as a slightly and pleasant natural beauty spot, and it is hoped the scheme will be carried out.

Barrington Boy Scout Saves Life of Swimmer

The heroic action of Virgil Wilkins, of Barrington, member of scout, troop 10, was revealed last week by M. F. Lewellen, scoutmaster, nearly four weeks after he had been instrumental in saving the life of a drowned youth. Virgil kept the incident secret, and, it was only through a chance remark made by a companion that the deed was learned.

Virgil and a group of boys were swimming in the small lake on Barrington on June 28. Several were on a raft about 50 yards from shore, among them Clarence Hill, 16, years old, from Elk Grove, Ill., who was unable to swim.

In playing around in the water, Clarence went over his depth and sank from sight. His younger brother saw him sink and called to the boys on the raft who could swim.

Virgil, accompanied by Robert McLaughlin, swam to his rescue and dove to the bottom where he was found unconscious. He had been down two minutes.

When they brought him to shore it was found that Virgil was the only boy present able to use artificial respiration. After working on him for 15 or 20 minutes, Clarence was revived.

Due to his training in scouting, Virgil was able to render

With 2000 people and animals participating in its brilliant pageantry, India fills the world's largest big top with moving color, flashing gems, costly habiliments, gorgeous robes and headresses, rare fabrics, ornate floats, dazzling banners in a panorama of ineffable beauty. It surpasses all previous spectacles in every respect—in cost, in color, in splendor and in immensity.

This year the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey agents have been amazingly successful in contracting outstanding foreign attractions and features. The circus great of the entire world are with The Greatest Show on Earth. The famous William Heyer of Holland and his wonder horses; the celebrated Magyars, Europe's largest and most thrilling somersaulting troupe; the great Aloys, sensational aerial upside down glider and flier; the Lu-Lotta family of aerial thrillers; the Maysy-Brach troupe of lofty acrobats; the Qualtieros, airplane sensationalists; the Cleveres, acrobatic whirlwinds—these are but a few of the top flight new acts from abroad. The Naittos, with Nio, only girl somersault on the tight wire; the Yacopic, The Uyenos, the Maschinos, the Yom Kams, the Cannestrellis, the Walkmirs, the Antaleks, and the Torrence-Dolores are European stellar groups, as are the Wallendas, the Loyal-Repens, the Rieffelachs, the Walters, Mile Gillette and the great Rudy Rudy.

The Concellos, the Comets, the Randolls, the Rooneys, the Belmonts, the Melbournes, the Fioretas and the Palmers head the great aerial displays. There are 800 performers in the five rings, on the two stages, in the air and on the quarter mile hippodrome track as the 1937 program unfolds.

The mighty combined circus will arrive on four long trains of 100 double length, steel railroad cars, carrying 1600 people, 50 elephants, 1009 menagerie animals and 700 horses.

Fur Bearer Tiny as an Insect
Outranked in size by some insects, the short-tailed shrew is the smallest fur-bearing mammal in North America. From the tip of its pointed nose to the end of its stub tail he measures just two and three-quarters inches.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

H. O. Meisenheimer, M. D.

Infantile Paralysis or Poliomyelitis is an acute, infectious, communicable disease, affecting chiefly children and occurring from July to October. 85% of all cases occur during the first four years of age; the greatest incidence during the second year, the next greatest from the third to the seventh years. A large majority of adults and most children over ten years of age are immune to this disease, probably because they had the disease in a very mild form which left no paralysis.

The committee desires also to give recognition to the pulling power of the Paddock publications. The presence of so many people from neighboring communities can be attributed to no other fact than the publicity given to the event by the Paddock newspapers.

You Were There — We Thank You

The Mt. Prospect village and rural fire department extend their appreciation of the wholehearted cooperation of all their members, their wives and other workers, which made the picnic last Saturday such an outstanding success.

The presence of members of neighboring fire departments is likewise acknowledged. The purchase of the desired 200 feet of hose is now assured.

Arlington Heights Boy Wins Sixth Place In Guitar Contest

Wilbert Engelking of Arlington Heights, ended up in sixth place in the contest recently sponsored by Honolulu Studios for guitarists which was announced locally two months ago and which closed on July 3. Many of the contestants were very close and Wilbert used his $10.00 prize to help pay for a new electric "singing" guitar. There were exactly 75 winners with a total prize amounting to $195.00.

Lorraine Kruse of Des Plaines and Mildred Lutz of Park Ridge ended up in first and second places, winning their choice of a free trip to the National Guitar Convention in Detroit or a $40.00 guitar outfit. Both have chosen the guitars.

Other winners of smaller prizes from Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect include Carl Schliemann, Jimmy Jirak, Leroy and Betty Scamhorn, Norman Sternberg, Norman Beese, Anton Drabek, Bernice Benici, Elmer Tonner, Helen Palmer, Luella Weidener, Rodney Larson.

Honolulu Studios, headed by Elmer D. Herrick, have teaching studios located in many of the towns in this vicinity and they staged the contest to create more interest in stringed instrument music. The contest was based on a point system, and those with the most points were the lucky winners. The prize list was announced for the first time this week.

May Extend Interceptor To Wheeling

Workmen for the Sanitary District have been busy this week drilling test holes in the terrain of Des Plaines and along River road to Wheeling in an effort to learn the soil composition preparation to an extension of sewer work.

We understand plans are developing in the Sanitary board to extend the interceptor, that has been laid in Des Plaines, on to Wheeling to care for sewage of Mt. Prospect, Arlington Heights and Wheeling.

The interceptor has been completed from Thacker street to Touhy avenue for more than a year and the greater part of the work has been finished to North avenue. However, difficulties were encountered on some stations, which has delayed completion of the whole project.

Should the interceptor be laid on to Wheeling along River road, it will further aid in clearing up the mess in the river. Libertyville and other towns north of us, we understand, have either built treatment plants or have them under construction.

This greatly needed improvement, when, and if, it is actually placed in operation, will go a long way in bringing the Des Plaines river back to its original state, as a sightly and pleasant natural beauty spot, and it is hoped the scheme will be carried out.

"Just to show what a small town Chicago was, why when my baby sister was lost we asked the Town Crier who had a bell, to call out the news of her disappearance."

These are only a few of the interesting facts pioneers and their descendants have sent to the Chicago Historical Society at North avenue and Clark street. If your grandfather or anyone in your family lived in the Chicago area during or before 1850 the Society wants to hear from you. During the Charter Jubilee year an annual membership is being offered for $1 instead of the usual $10 to descendants of these pioneers. In exchange for this information about early settlers, the Society not only offers all the privileges of a regular annual membership, but also a beautifully printed certificate on the face of which appears a piece of wood from Ft. Dearborn and a small bell cast from the Court House Bell salvaged after the fire of 1871.

Halbert Porter, Park Ridge funeral director, died suddenly of a heart attack Monday. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at St. Luke's church. Mr. Porter was prominent in Masonic circles and is well known in the Northwest towns. His parents were residents of Palatine many years.

Historical Society Makes Special Offer To Descendants Of Pioneers

"Sure, I'm an old-timer all right! I remember when there weren't any walks on the east side of Michigan avenue. I used to go fishing there. Now look at it," says Albert D. Murray, who now lives at 503 Ellis avenue in Wheaton, Illinois.

"And the street cars weren't streamlined in the old days, either. Anna and Randolph streets were the limits of the Randolph car line. They were what we called bob tails drawn by mules or horses."

"I can remember when my father took me out to see the Confederate prisoners, and when we lived on Adams street the soldiers came to arrest a Southern Spy who was hiding in a house two doors east of us."

Mr. Murray answered the Chicago Historical Society's call for pioneers and descendants of settlers in the Chicago area before 1850 and gave the Society much information to add to the rapidly growing collection of data on early Chicagoans and their families. He goes on to say:

"I was licked the first day I ever attended the Dearborn Street School right opposite McVicker's Theatre, because I called out to my big sister across the room. The teachers used to put red pepper seeds in mouths of pupils as punishment, but that was soon stopped."

DUSTING 'EM OFF

Week of July 5, 1937 — Du Page Register

Bensenville—Emil Urban, alias Joe Gans, umpired 7 innings of ball, Sunday for the Territors, when he fell asleep and got a severe hit with a ball over his left eye. At last reports he is nursing sore teeth and a severe headache.

Red and White hold 'em tight is the new motto of the Territors. In their game Sunday with Addison, the new red suits and white socks certainly show up fine. The boys all felt like the real goods, handing the Addison nine a lemon stuffed with a score of 2 to 9. Billy Urban and Willie Koebelman were battery mates for the Territors.

Starch, like sugar, is produced in all green plants, and is mostly found stored in their seeds and rootstocks. It is thus especially abundant in the various grains, such as wheat, rye, barley, oats and corn; in other seeds, such as peas, beans, acorns and chestnuts, and in numerous tuberous roots and rhizomes including the potato, sweet potato, arrowroot, etc. The principal commercial starches are rice, wheat, corn, sago, arrowroot, cassava and potato. Many other starches are of local importance in the countries where they are produced. Besides its use as food, starch is employed in the textile industries. — Field Museum News.

B. E.'s Drop One To East Maine 14-6

The East Maine baseball team arose from its long cellar-slammer last Sunday to beat down an eight men Bensenville-Edgewood nine by a decisive 14-6 measure, snapping the latter's brief winning streak at two games. Intermittent showers kept some of the B.-E. players at home.

The East Maine boys took up the game as serious business as early as the opening stanza, when they put over two runs on only one hit, but were given further assistance by the B.-E.'s with two errors. In all, the Bensenville-Edgewooders earned seven times behind their diminutive hurler, Norman Knox, who did well to hold the East Maine nine to eleven hits with but two outfieldsers at him.

Oehlerling twirled for the winners, giving up eight hits and seven runs on balls while whiffing nine. F. Elsner, East Maine's third baseman, led the home hitters with three singles in five trips to the plate. Fred Rehder of the B.-E.'s duplicated Elsner's batting feat. B.-E.'s . . . .031 100—6 8 7

Boy Scout Camp To Remain Open An Extra Week

Due to the demand, it has been decided that Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta, the Boy Scout camp for the Scouts of the Northwest Suburban Council will be conducted for an additional week and the 7th period of camp will open on next Sunday, August 1. Scouts desiring to attend for this last week, should notify Scout headquarters at once or report directly to Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta. A medical examination must be seen before arrival at camp.

One of the features of the activities at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta the past week was the Indian hunt engaged in by all of the campers. In this game a small group from the Indian Village represent band of Indians and the remainder of the camp, a group of old Indian fighters who were on the lookout for a marauding band of savages. In a territory approximately three miles square the band of Indians, after having an hour's head start attempt to return to the camp without being caught by the various patrols looking for them. Each group was required to confine their route to the highways and after many exciting experiences due to the fact that the sentries fell asleep, the Indians managed to elude their pursuers and return to camp thus winning the game.

Among the Scouts who are in camp this week are:

Bruce Jarrett and Carl Schiele of Troop 31 of Niles Center.

Herbert Wink and David Kester of Troop 23 of Mt. Prospect.

Raymond Hahnfeld and August Penkava of Troop 9 of Palatine.

A radio broadcast of special interest to those interested in learning more about the stars, planets and the constellations will be given by the Hayden Planetarium of the American Museum of Natural History in cooperation with the Columbia Broadcasting System. These programs, entitled "The Drama of the Skies" will be presented from New York over the complete Columbia Network every Tuesday at 4:45 p. m., C. D. S. T. They will assume the character of a series of broadcasts from the various planets, giving a picture of what these planets would look like if visited by space explorers.

The Boy Scout World Jamboree will open in Holland on next Saturday, July 31 and the opening ceremonies at which time Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands will speak and this ceremony will be broadcast throughout the world.

This program will be broadcast from 9:30 a. m. to 10:00 a. m. C. D. S. T. and will be heard over the blue network of the National Broadcasting Company.

At Washington

By RALPH E. CHURCH
Representative, 10th Congressional District

Washington, D. C., July 24—One of the most exciting and amazing chapters in American political history has been completed. On Thursday, July 22, by a vote of 70 to 20 the United States Senate re-committed the proposal to enlarge the Supreme Court back to the Judiciary Committee for an ignominious burial. It has now been decided that no President, however popular as a personality, should be permitted to change the character of the Supreme Court so as to conform to his wishes.

No President ever received such an impressive victory at the polls. No President ever had a larger and more subservient majority in Congress. No President ever controlled such extensive political power. No President was ever clothed with such complete authority over our organized society.

But just within eight months after his sweeping re-election, regardless of his power and influence, a President of the United States has been crushedly defeated by a Senate in which his party has 76 out of the 96 seats. Even his closest friends deserted him on the issue and ignored the pleas for loyalty. It is an amazing development. What is the answer?

There will be those who will credit the defeat of the measure to some one or other of the events that took place subsequent to its introduction in Congress, particularly during the last few weeks. The answer will not be found in any of them. It was not the speech of Congressman Summers that brought the defeat. It was not the death of Senator Robinson, nor the "Dear Alben" letter from the President to Senator Barkley which caused the result. Nor was it the letter of Governor Lehman of New York to Senator Wagner of that State.

To be sure, all those events contributed something to the defeat of the Court plan. But none of them in itself is the answer to the refusal of the United States Senate to comply with the insistence of a powerful and popular President that the bill be enacted at this session.

The answer will be found in that which took place in the Senate Chamber when the motion to recommit the bill was being made by Senator M. M. Logan, Democrat, of Kentucky. Part of the motion comprised instructions to the Committee to report another bill within 10 days. Pursuant to a previous agreement, the new bill was not to alter the Supreme Court.

Senator Hiram Johnson, Republican, of California, immediately asked whether the motion meant that the Supreme Court part of the proposal would be dropped. When Senator Logan replied in the affirmative, the Californian exclaimed, "Glory Be to God!" The packed galleries burst into applause.

There is the answer why the bill was crushingly defeated. The exclamation of Senator Johnson came from his heart. It is indicative of the sincerity of those who had been opposing the proposal. It is indicative of their earnestness in seeking to sustain the principle of an "independent judiciary" and their feeling of anxiety. Earnest men with deep-seated convictions cannot be shaken from their cause. There is no greater force, and that force the President could not overcome regardless of the power he possessed.

These earnest men had the people behind them. The applause in the Senate galleries was undoubtedly echoed throughout the nation. The people had made it known that they believe in the orderly processes of government and "balances." They had made it known that, with all its faults, real or imagined, they have faith in an independent Supreme Court. The Senate responded to the people's wishes.

Thursday, July 22, is truly a memorable day. We have recorded on that page of our history for every future Executive to read: no President, however large his election majority, will be permitted to alter the pattern of the government without the explicit consent of the people themselves.

Our attendance prediction . . . of one thousand . . . wasn't very far off . . . the crowd having started to gather long before game time.

Ray Hayes . . . ace pitcher of the Gaare Studebakers . . . started for the home all-stars . . . setting the Du Pages down in order the first inning . . . but his mates fell down on him in the next two frames . . . committing six runs to let in five unearned runs. His successor . . . Art Luerssen . . . of the Rose-Lo Inn team . . . 1936 Arlington champions . . . fared better . . . getting a suddenly different but better brand of support.

Pancake . . . of Churchill . . . pitched all the way for the Du Page All-Stars . . . turning in an exhibition deserving of victory. A costly error at first base by B. Kerner . . . of Roselle . . . on a thrown ball in the 8th after two were out . . . that would have retired the side without a score . . . was the difference between victory and defeat . . . Arlington went on to push over three tallies o'er into the lead for the first time . . . holding it to the finish.

Highlights of the battle . . . "Red" Weisgerber's hitting and catching . . . Art Luerssen's long home run and single . . . and up human relief pitching job . . . for Arlington.

For Du Page . . . Pancake's brilliant pitching performance . . . and Ken Fischer's spectacular one-handed catch of a line-drive out in short-center field . . . drew the applause of the crowd.

Last . . . but not least Sweitzer's umpiring was tops.

A rematch of the two teams was billed for Wednesday night. Complete box scores of both games will appear in next week's edition.

DUSTING 'EM OFF

Week of July 5, 1937 — Du Page Register

Bensenville—Emil Urban, alias Joe Gans, umpired 7 innings of ball, Sunday for the Terriers, when he fell asleep and got a severe hit over his left eye. At last reports he is nursing sore teeth and a severe headache.

Red and White hold 'em tight is the new motto of the Terriers. In their game Sunday with Addison, the new red suits and white socks certainly show up fine. The boys all felt like the real goods, handing the Addison nine a lemon stuffed with a score of 2 to 9. Billy Urban and Willie Koebbe were battery mates for the Terriers.

B. E.'s Drop One To East Maine 14-6

The East Maine baseball team arose from its long cellar-slammer last Sunday to beat down an eight men Bensenville-Edgewood nine by a decisive 14-6 measure, snapping the latter's brief winning streak at two games. Intermittent showers kept some of the B.-E. players at home.

The East Maine boys took up the game as serious business as early as the opening stanza, when they put over two runs on only one hit, but were given further assistance by the B.-E.'s with two errors. In all, the Bensenville-Edgewood reeled seven times behind their diminutive hurler, Norman Knox, who did well to hold the East Maine nine to eleven hits with two outfieldsers behind him.

Oehlerling twirled for the winners, giving up eight hits and seven bases on balls while whiffing nine. F. Elsner, East Maine's third baseman, led the home hitters with three singles in five trips to the plate. Fred Reher of the B.-E.'s duplicated Elsner's batting feat.

No President ever received such an impressive victory at the polls. No President ever had a larger and more subservient majority in Congress. No President ever controlled such extensive political power. No President was ever clothed with such complete authority over our organized society.

But just within eight months after his sweeping re-election, regardless of his power and influence, a President of the United States has been crushedly defeated by a Senate in which his party has 76 out of the 96 seats. Even his closest friends deserted him on the issue and ignored the pleas for loyalty. It is an amazing development. What is the answer?

There will be those who will credit the defeat of the measure to some one or other of the events that took place subsequent to its introduction in Congress, particularly during the last few weeks. The answer will not be found in any one of them. It was not the speech of Congressman Summers that brought the defeat. It was not the death of Senator Robinson, nor the "Dear Alben" letter from the President to Senator Barkley which caused the result. Nor was it the letter of Governor Lehman of New York to Senator Wagner of that State.

To be sure, all those events contributed something to the defeat of the Court plan. But none of them in itself is the answer to the refusal of the United States Senate to comply with the insistence of a powerful and popular President that the bill be enacted at this session.

The answer will be found in that which took place in the Senate Chamber when the motion to recommit the bill was made by Senator M. M. Logan, Democrat, of Kentucky. Part of the motion comprised instructions to the Committee to report another bill within 10 days. Pursuant to a previous agreement, the new bill was not to alter the Supreme Court.

Senator Hiram Johnson, Republican, of California, immediately asked whether the motion meant that the Supreme Court part of the

At Washington

By RALPH E. CHURCH
Representative, 10th Congressional District

Washington, D. C., July 24—One of the most exciting and amazing chapters in American political history has been completed. On Thursday, July 22, by vote of 70 to 20 the United States Senate re-committed the proposal to enlarge the Supreme Court back to the Judiciary committee for an ignominious burial.

There is the answer why the bill was crushingly defeated. The exclamation of Senator Johnson came from his heart. It is indicative of the sincerity of those who had been opposing the proposal. It is indicative of their earnestness in seeking to sustain the principle of an "independent judiciary" and their feeling of anxiety. Earnest men with deep-seated convictions cannot be shaken from their cause. There is no greater force, and that force the President could not overcome regardless of the power he possessed.

These earnest men had the people behind them. The applause in the Senate galleries was undoubtedly echoed throughout the nation. The people had made it known that they believe in the orderly processes of government and in the American system of "checks and balances." They had made it known that, with all its faults, real or imagined, they have faith in an independent Supreme Court. The Senate responded to the people's wishes.

Thursday, July 22, is truly a memorable day. We have recorded on that page of our history for every future Executive to read, no President, however large his election majority, will be permitted to alter the pattern of the government without the explicit consent of the people themselves.

DUPAGE COUNTY NEWS EVENTS

Problems faced by the county board of liquor control to reduce the number of tavern licenses gradually to 100, appear to be sovling themselves. The county board in June, went on record as favoring a reduction ultimately to 100, but took the stand that it would not arbitrarily exclude any holder of a county liquor license. The reduction, it was pointed out, would ensue from a condition whereby a licensee permits his license to lapse, or die. One other way to reduce licenses was mentioned, and that was the revocation of a liquor permit for cause.

In the year between July 1, 1936 and July 1, 1937, there were 150 licenses issued, with one held up only until such a time as the owner of a building being erected in North Glen Ellyn, could fulfill all qualifications. The owner, Pete Lombard, posted his bond, his liquor license fee of $200, and met the requirements. Had every license issued last year been reissued this month, there would have been a total of 151 such permits.

However, 19 of the 1936 licenses either did not qualify, or went out of the liquor business voluntarily. It has been pointed out on occasion that there seemed to be too many taverns for the business, and that some of them must suffer. A number of last year's licensees were unable to carry on under the conditions.

Vito Sorecco, who ran a tavern near the CCC camp on North avenue, did not apply for a license. His son-in-law, Joseph Genovesi, did. The liquor commission declined to issue a license to the latter.

An investigation by Dr. Paul A. Isherwood, county coroner, in regard to the numerous accidents and fatalities that occurred as the result of CCC men being struck with autos near this place, gave the county authorities an idea that perhaps a tavern near the camp was not in the best spot for the safety of drunken pedestrians.

Irving Brooks of River Forest, who has installed heating plants in Naperville, West Chicago, Wheaton, and other nearby highschool buildings, has been hired on a six percent commission basis to design plans for a new heating plant for the courthouse. Included in the plans will be provision for a heat distribution plant for the proposed first unit of a new courthouse.

Announcement of the engaging of Mr. Brooks for the job was made by Donald R. Murray, Milton township supervisor, chairman of the courthouse and grounds committee of the board of supervisors. The committee was empowered at the July meeting of the board to hire such an engineer.

Brooks has gone to work on preliminary plans, the county now being in a race with Old Man Winter, it being the hope of the members of the board that the plant will be installed and in operation before cold weather sets in. According to the report made to the board two weeks ago, the cost of the work will be $10,000, this amount including the six percent commission.

Question as to whether the committee had exceeded its authority in engaging an engineer was answered by N. W. Lies, chairman of the board. He said that the board had authorized the committee to hire such an engineer, and that it had acted under this authority.

Herbert A. Grotfeld of Downers Grove, high in the ranks of active county Republicans, was appointed on Saturday, master-in-chancery, to succeed Jos. Sam Perry of Glen Ellyn, a Democrat. Circuit Judge William J. Fulton, who made the appointment, took into consideration the recommendation of the DuPage County Republican Central committee, of which Mr. Grotfeld was once president, as well as the many other qualifications of the appointee.

It has been, for some time, a foregone conclusion that Mr. Grotfeld was slated for the appointment, but guessing the acts of a court before any action is taken is hazardous, and Mr. Grotfeld's name appeared in print as a possible appointee only at intervals.

Perry was appointed four years ago by the late Judge Max F. Allaben, also a Democrat. Two years ago, Perry was reappointed. Judge Allaben died last summer, and it was a foregone conclusion that he would not be reappointed by the two sitting circuit court judges, each of whom is a staunch Republican.

Mr. Grotfeld has been a practicing attorney for 18 years. This is the first time he has sought appointment. He had the backing of the Republican County Central committee, that body, through Dr. Paul A. Isherwood, county chairman, recommending the appointment.

The Downers Grove man's appointment is expected to prove popular. It restores to the Republican party one of its most important and highly lucrative offices. It pays a debt to a man who has worked hard and earnestly for party success, and places another office in territory that has felt it is being ill-considered in the distribution of patronage.

The term of office is for four years, and the appointment is made by the circuit bench. In naming Mr. Grotfeld, Judge Fulton acted with the knowledge and with the full co-operation of Circuit Judge Frank W. Shepherd of Elgin, the only other member of the circuit bench of this circuit.

Lions Golf Tourney Is Next Tuesday

The Palatine Lions club golf tournament for the Lions of this area will take place next Tuesday at the Arlington Country club on Dundee road.

And it appears that there are a lot of golfers among the Lions who will compete for the fine prizes which are being offered.

There will be preachers, school teachers, real estate men, new deal democrats and anti-new deal republicans, business men and what not, all jumbled up in that big golf tournament for one glorious afternoon and evening.

And the fun isn't all going to be for the golfers either. The Lions and their ladies who don't play golf, are in the big golf day dinner at 6:45 and the fine entertainment which will be given under the direction of Sid Page.

All Lions intending to play golf or join in the evening's fun, are urged to make their reservations early. Rev. F. J. Schnell is chairman of the tournament committee and C. C. Uhrhammer is chairman of the attendance committee.

The Lions are planning a great time for next Tuesday and all neighboring Lions are invited to join in the fun.

Fatal Bicycle Accidents Are On Increase

Warning that bicycle accidents are increasing at an alarming rate, Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes today urged parents to cooperate with him to reduce future tragedies of this type. He asked them to impress upon children who ride bicycles the need of observing the law for their own safety.

Motorists were urged also to do their part by driving cautiously when cyclists are riding nearby. Secretary Hughes explained, however, that "careful as motorists may be, bicycle accidents cannot be avoided unless the cyclists themselves exercise the utmost caution."

According to statistics 770 persons were killed and more than 24,000 injured in accidents involving bicycles and motor vehicles last year as compared with 600 dead and 18,000 injured in 1935.

"It is with regret," said Mr. Hughes, "that we learn that a majority of these tragedies were boys and girls in their teens."

According to Secretary Hughes the following safety rules, if obeyed, would virtually eliminate bicycle accidents:

1. Keep to the right side of the street or highway.
2. Obey all traffic rules and signals.
3. Avoid riding on the sidewalks.
4. Never travel at night without both a head and tail light on your bicycle.
5. Do not race.
6. Signal for all turns and stops.
7. Do not hitch to a moving vehicle.
8. Do not make a U turn in the middle of the street.
9. Brakes are just as essential on a bicycle as on a car—keep them in good working condition.
10. Do not ride anyone on your bicycle.
11. Avoid trick riding.

riders obey all traffic controls including stop lights, Secretary Hughes said.

Mr. Hellyer's office reported that tax payments have dropped off to some extent the last few days.

However, a distribution of $100,000 was placed in the mails Tues-expects that income from tax pay-

August. The first penalty of 1 percent will be added on the second installment of taxes on Sept. 1. By that time, 3 percent will have been

Speaks on Taxation Before Chicago Club

County Treasurer Arthur L. Hellyer spoke before the Chicago Kiwanis club recently on "Prob- lems of Taxation," a topic that proved of special interest to the club members in view of the widespread discussion of tax matters.

Drawing upon his own experience in governmental finance matters, as well as from his thorough study of the Illinois tax situation, Mr. Hellyer declared that this state has over 16,000 separate governmental units for which taxes are levied. He pointed out that many of these tax-

bodies overlap and duplicate services, and that consolidation of the unnecessary units would result in the saving of millions of dollars of the taxpayers' money each year.

No Strike Here

We know of one job where there is no labor trouble—and that's the position of carrying the mail from the post office at Bensenville to the depot. The party who has had the position for several years, has notified the powers that be, that he desires the position no longer and no bids are being received for the place. Those interested in securing this highly respected position may receive all the needed information by inquiring of postmaster Born, but you will have to hurry for the bids will close August 2, and that's only next Monday.

George C. Hartung, well known in Bensenville, Morton Grove, River Grove and Wheaton, has arrived from San Antonio, Texas, to spend a three month vacation among relatives and friends here. Mr. Hartung is a cousin of Mrs. Grace Kirchhoff of Franklin Park and Harold Martens in River Grove, Ill. Mr. Hartung spent many years as a boy along the Des Plaines river fishing mud turtles, crabs and hunting jack rabbits and prairie chickens around Du Page county.

George Hartung just spent the past two weeks in Benton Harbor, Michigan visiting his wife's relatives, the first time in thirteen years. One of them, Tom Stoffle, Coloma, Mich., has a large grape vineyard in good bearing, besides raspberries, plums and blackberries. George Hartung is also an uncle of Richard Smith of Franklin Park, Ill.

Down in San Antonio, Texas, the temperature was 105, but seldom comes offener than twice the whole summer. Ninety in the day time, 1 p. to 4 p. m. and sixty-five at 7 p. m., give a good night's sleep.

Between 350 and 400 complaints against assessments are expected by the Board of Tax Review, now holding daily sessions in the courthouse at Wheaton, before the deadline on Aug. 1. N. W. Lies, chairman of the board of review, said this week that up until that time approximately 200 complaints had been filed.

He expects a sudden influx of complaints as the deadline approaches. No complaints will be received by the board of review after Aug. 1. Mr. Lies says emphatically that that date is the actual deadline and that the board will not disrupt its schedule.

Dates for the collection of delinquent taxes or forfeitures of property have been set for this year by the office of County Collector Arthur L. Hellyer, as follows:

Date for filing suit against property have been set for this year by the office of County Collector Arthur L. Hellyer, as follows:

The sale will be continued day by day until the sales are made, or some other disposition is made. After the sales on real estate, special assessment sales will be conducted. The delinquent lists will be published on or before Oct. 8.

He has invitations from many civic groups throughout Illinois requesting that he speak to them on the tax problem, a subject of considerable importance to residents everywhere.

His broad background of experience, observation and legal training make him a widely-quoted authority on the Illinois Tax situation.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Truth" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 25.

The Golden Text was, "The truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise ye the Lord" (Psalms 117:2).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "O Lord thou art my God; I will exalt thee and will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth" (Isaiah 25:1).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "If thou art startled at the strong claim of Science for the supremacy of God, or Truth, and doubts the supremacy of good, ought we not to be astounded at the vigorous claims of evil and doubt them, and no longer think it natural to love sin and unnatural to forsake it—no longer imagine evil to be present and good absent? Truth should not seem so surprising and unnatural as error, and error should not seem so real as truth" (pp. 130, 131).

No Disease "Incurable"

There are incurable patients, but no incurable diseases. Every disease is curable, as long as the vitality is not too low to react to natural living and treatment, and as long as destruction of vital parts and organs has not too far advanced.—H. Lindlahr, M. D.

Palatine Pastor Weds Berwyn Young Lady

In a pretty, informal ceremony at the Trinity Evangelical church of Chicago, Saturday evening, July 24, at 8 p. m., Eveline Christopher, daughter of Mrs. Mary Christopher of Berwyn, became the bride of Rev. Donald Landwehr, pastor of the Salem Evangelical church of Palatine. Rev. H. H. Kalas officiated.

The bride was lovely in a white crepe dress with a short, rose-colored jacket, and a matching turban with a short veil. Her corsage was made up of gardenias, tiny pink roses, and an orchid. Just as Charming was the bridesmaid, Ruth Christopher, in a dubonnet and white. Her corsage was made up of American Beauty roses and tiny white intertwining flowers.

The bride's mother and the groom's mother both wore blue lace with white accessories. Their sashes were made up of tea roses and bachelor buttons.

Mr. Clifford Landwehr, of Gilman, Illinois, the groom's brother, acted as best man.

A reception for the families and guests was held at the bride's home after the ceremony.

On their return from a two-weeks trip through Kentucky and Tennessee, the young couple will make their home at 234 N. Plum Grove avenue, Palatine, Ill.

The Lions are planning a great time for next Tuesday and all neighboring Lions are invited to join in the fun.

Melrose Park Firemen Present Benefit Show In Palatine Home

The Melrose Park Firemen called again upon Mrs. Anna Rainey of Palatine this week to present several vaudeville numbers in combination with their theater revue held at the Melrose Park theater Tuesday and Wednesday, July 21 and 22, for their benefit. Some of those who took part were the Seeger trio of Mt. Prospect, May Ober of Crystal Lake, "Tiny" Marshal Hartwig of Barrington in his "Popeye, junior" number, Bob Hynek, 12-year-old golden voiced juvenile who sings on the radio with "Uncle Harry," and Melvin Preston of Palatine road, who was applauded many times for his fine accordion selections.

Health Before Everything

Public health lies at the very foundation of all human welfare. Unless that is conserved and protected, there is very little use in any other activity for the promotion of public welfare.—Calvin Coolidge.
